Message from the President

A note from the President

Wow, this year has flown by!! Little did I realize how busy we on the board would be as we worked through the business affairs of TXOLAN Alpaca Association, Inc. It started out kind of like a snowball rolling downhill... the pace went from kind of slow and easy then as the year progressed and we began to deal with all things relating to the show, there was an ever increasing action packed pace until the show is now just thundering down the straight-away. I hope you all realize how lucky you are to have the quality of a board of directors that you have. I have been blessed and proud to work with all of them and folks, they do work at the business of building and presenting the TXOLAN EVENT!!

Across the nation there has been somewhat of a decline in the number and size of alpaca shows due to, among other things, the costs of production, travel, showing, etc. and we did not want the TXOLAN EVENT to become part of any decline, so we set about seeking ways to increase revenue, amp up the showing experience and opportunity and to still make it a fun experience to attend and participate in the activities of the EVENT.

We decided to try some new things, such as add an extra show, the Bluebonnet Stakes. Since our event is so early in the year, the extra show under a separate judge would give folks an early opportunity to begin evaluating their show string with looks from two different judges. Holding two shows on the same weekend provides exhibitors two evaluation opportunities at a reduced cost per show since there is only one trip cost, one hotel cost, one stall cost, etc. In addition to adding an extra halter show, we wanted to give the more Novice breeder/exhibitors an opportunity to show against their peers (in this case other Novices) for Novice ribbons but to also have the opportunity to compete for a color championship in their classes. So, we added in the Novice Classes to the new Bluebonnet Stakes. We are delighted to produce an event offering two full shows for the first time at TXOLAN, but that is not all, in addition, we are offering exhibitors a Walking Fleece Class, Performance Classes and a full Fleece Show!! Is that all.... heck no it is not all... TXOLAN is offering a full day, Friday, of continuing education sessions with experts in a variety of categories. What else do you ask? Welllllll...

Another of the "new things" is, we wanted to develop an online TXOLAN App that you can easily access from your mobile device in addition to having our standard event show book. The app will be available all year for your viewing pleasure. We have had to work on it right up to show time... so we are looking forward to sharing it with you... (continued on next page)

TXOLAN2020

Message from the President

Technical things we are providing, notwithstanding, we are hoping that the hard work of preparing and showing your animals will not be without rewards this year!!!! We wanted to make certain we offered our members, exhibitors and inquisitive noobies some additional fun, so we have scheduled our Meet N Greet in the Arena on Friday night right after the halter classes end, where folks can mix and mingle, nosh on really yummy hors d'oeuvres from circulating servers, refresh at a cash bar all while listening to a cowboy crooning Country Tunes up close and in-person! If that were not enough entertainment, we, spearheaded by Jayme and Dustin Haney, Alpacas of Aledo, have organized what we hope you will come away saying, was a really exciting and fun evening! We have scheduled a cash bar to open in the Cactus Room right after the show ends on Saturday evening, with dinner a little later followed by auctioning off some pretty neat goodies in the fundraising live auction. After that, for the highlight of the evening, the Haney's have booked in the NYNY Dueling Pianos show, featuring two baby grand piano players and singers on stage along with a cool drummer to entertain us throughout the rest of the evening.

As it is every year, producing an event that services the industry, provides professional and amateur opportunities to evaluate and promote their breeding and showing programs, learn more through continuing education and still have a good time by all is a rather daunting task! If you see one of our volunteers doing things to help move the show along... take the time to thank them because they are an invaluable resource that we are so fortunate to enjoy! If time allows, be sure to stop by the AOA booth and say hi to our new AOA Executive Director, Ms. Robin Gifford who will be our guest for the weekend. Please do take notes because when it is all over and the dust settles, we will be coming back to you with a show follow-up survey where you can share your thoughts, compliments, complaints and suggestions for our 2020 and 2021 TXOLAN EVENTS! I look forward to seeing and visiting with you all.

Judges

David Barboza
Walking Fleece and Youth Performance

David Barboza volunteering as a ring steward recognized the process and challenges that livestock judging presented and decided to attend the International Alpaca Judging School in 2001. After returning from Peru he began the AOA judges training program and completed his certification in both IAJS and AOA as a halter, fleece, and performance judge. He judged his first show in 2006 and has judged over 45 shows both in the US and Canada. David served a 3 year term on the AOBA board serving as Secretary and President. Promoting youth involvement in alpacas he has been instrumental in developing alpaca youth judging contests throughout the US. To expand his knowledge of livestock, David is currently enrolled in Graduate Studies at Colorado State University. After serving 29 years in the fire service David continues to serve as a soldier in the California State Military Reserve and Mission Pilot in the Civil Air Patrol. He works in the alpaca industry dividing his time between his ranch, judging, and teaching seminars. In 2006, together with his wife Brenda, they started ACE, Alpaca Continuing Education, which provides cutting edge training and education for the alpaca breeder. Today David and Brenda run their ranch, RanchoNC Alpacas, in the foothills of Northern California and devote their attention to the alpaca industry.

Sara Jane Maclennan
Fleece Show and Walking Fleece

Sara Jane Maclennan has been an AOA Certified Judge since 2005, and is a Judge Trainer for the Judge Apprenticeship Program. She has judged both halter and fleece shows across the United States and Canada. Sara Jane is committed to a fair and thorough examination of all alpacas entered in shows as well as clear oral reasons for placement. Breeder education is Sara Jane's prime objective both in judging and in working with breeders. She has taught many seminars on breeding strategies, selection, and fleece evaluation, and conducted numerous herd evaluations. To promote alpaca health, she has raised significant funds for the University Veterinary Hospitals in both Colorado and Kansas. In 1971, while living and working in South America, Sara Jane encountered her first alpaca herds. She and her husband Hugh began Dundee Farm in 1996. They designed and built their farm beside the foothills of the Rocky Mountains in Sedalia Colorado, where they stand several huacaya studs. Sara Jane is an urban designer and has spent her professional career working on large scale downtown revitalization and transportation projects in the United States, Canada, Eastern Europe, and Asia.

Judges

Arturo Pena
Halter Show

Arturo Pena is from Arequipa, Peru. He has an educational background in animal science and management. In 2003, he moved to the United States, since then he has been working as a herd manager for large alpaca farms operation. His fascination for alpacas and its luxury product "The Fleece" motivated him to get into the AOBA Judging Apprentice Program. He completed his training and become an AOBA Certified Halter, Performance and Fleece Judge for both Huacayas and Suris. Arturo, his wife Kat and son Nicholas recently moved to the East Coast area. Arturo believes that education and mentoring are the keys to promote and develop a strong Alpaca industry.

Helen Testa
Halter Show

Helen established Silvercloud Farm in 2001 and managed a large herd of huacayas. Helen has been very active within the alpaca community. She served as the President of the Pennsylvania Alpaca Owners and Breeders Association (PAOBA), managed the PAOBA Breeders Showcase, served on the Mid- Atlantic Alpaca Association Board of Directors, served on several Alpaca Owners Association Sub-Committees, and was founder partner in Silver Penn Sales. Helen recently joined the Judges Advisory Committee (JAC) and plans to remain active and supportive of the alpaca community.

Helen has been a AOA Certified Judge since 2007 and enjoys traveling throughout the country evaluating alpacas, offering educational seminars, herd evaluations, and sale consultations. Helen has now retired from Silvercloud Farm and she and her two children Mia and Raymond reside in Cranberry Township, Pennsylvania.

Speakers

Debbie Miller

Debbie Miller was originally born and raised in Nebraska, the daughter of cattle rancher. This real world education into livestock and matters of the farm made her uniquely qualified to deal with the alpaca. She has been an alpaca breeder and owner now for 20 years frequently using livestock techniques she learned from her childhood experience. In 2001 she attended the International Alpaca Judging School in Peru for her foundational education on the alpaca. Subsequently her hands on experience and day to day dealings with all things alpaca has formalized her alpaca/livestock know how.

In between her time cattle ranching and alpacas she took a job with Valmark Inc., a grocer/clothing store operator on San Juan Island. Starting as a check stand employee she eventually worked her way up to management and then buyer for the company which owned and operated four different store locations. It is her unique combination of experience in livestock and retail which allows her to thrive in the world of alpaca and alpaca retail.

Today she owns and operates Crescent Moon Ranch Alpacas and Alpaca Boutique in the third location Crescent Moon has owned. All three locations with successful store operations each in very different settings.

Lynn Edens

Lynn Edens is the owner of the Little Creek Alpacas and Snowmass Alpacas breeding programs, and co-owner of Imperial Yarn, an all-American yarn and textile production company. In these roles she is one member of a team of capable women whose shared goal is promote the success of the U.S. alpaca industry and its individual participants. Together they run the largest breeding program in the country. They probably also make the largest number of mistakes, and enjoy the largest number of laughs.

Speakers

Pamela A Ray

Pamela was born on a ranch in South Dakota and graduated from the University of Colorado & Notre Dame Law School. She practiced for 25 years before retiring, specializing in oil and gas and real estate development law. Pamela and her husband, Dale Cantwell, have 2 grown daughters, and since retiring, Dale volunteers full time as the co-executive director of Quechua Benefit.

In 1993 Pamela began Xanadu Farm Alpacas just north of Denver & made her first large purchase of alpacas from the 1994 Peruvian import. Since then she's maintained a production herd of 60 alpacas with a heavy emphasis on the impact of quality females. And, of course, some excellent machos.

Dr. Patti Maness

Dr. Patti Maness graduated Texas A & M in 1981, and practiced in south Texas for 20 years. Dr. Maness' current practice is south of Oklahoma City, and consists of small animal and exotics which includes alpacas. Dr. Maness is licensed in both Texas and Oklahoma. She has owned and shown alpacas since 2006. Her involvement in the alpaca industry brings a unique perspective as both an owner and veterinarian. Dr. Maness has spoken at TXOLAN in past years and will be a featured speaker again this year. She is a life time member of the Texas Veterinary Medical Association , as well as a member of the Oklahoma Medical Reserve Corps (MRC), National Animal Health Emergency Response Corp (NAHERC), Oklahoma Veterinary Medical Association (OVMA), and the American Veterinary Medical Association (AVMA).

Dr. Maness will be our on-site veterinarian in case her services are needed. Her services will be available on Thursday afternoon and Friday in case of health certificate (CVI) or microchip issues. Re-issuing a health certificate will be $25.00. The ARI certificate and BVD by PCR results (lab and date info) will be required. A Bio-Therm Life microchip can be implanted for $25.00 if needed.

Speakers

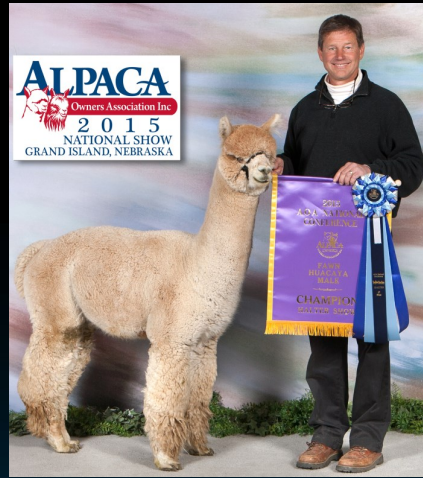

Sally Brandon Placeholder

Sally's fiber art exploration began with 4-H knitting and then as an International 4-H Youth Exchange (IFYE) to Finland she found her joint passions of Bobbin Lace and Weaving. Sally and her husband, Jay, own The Shepherd's Mill which specializes in turning fiber into luxurious yarn, home décor and wearable textiles. She has over 40 years of fiber art experience. As a self-professed fiber junkie, there are few fiber arts she doesn't dabble in; but she is most at home creating on her loom.

TXOLAN Sweetheart Spectacular Fleece Show

In Fleece Shows, the fleece or fiber arts item is judged against a standard and given score points and written evaluation comments. This information is very useful to the alpaca owner in determining the best use for the fiber.

Divisions

- Full Fleece - Prime alpaca blanket is judged.
- Spin-off - 2 - 4 oz sample of prime blanket is spun and judged.
- Cottage - Spin-off score is combined with scores for remaining prime blanket.
- Fiber Arts - Items made from alpaca fiber. Can be knitted, crocheted, woven or felted.
- Walking Fleece - Fleece is judged on the alpaca. Conformation is not included in evaluation and scoring.

What is a Walking Fleece Competition?

Walking Fleece Competition is an opportunity for the exhibitor to enter a fleece competition where the prime fleece is evaluated while still on the alpaca. Conformation is NOT assessed. An AOA Walking Fleece scorecard will be completed for each alpaca in the course of this evaluation/judging process. Placements are made on a highest score basis once all evaluations are completed and tabulated. Oral comments by the Judge may be given during the hands-on evaluation. Judging by an AOA Certified Fleece Judge is required. Walking Fleece Registrations are handled as an Optional Halter Class via the registration System but will follow the rules for a Fleece Show according

Definition of Categories

- Alpacas and Friends: Photos of alpacas interacting with their friends. Friends may be other alpacas, other 4-legged creatures, or even 2- legged creatures!
- Black and White: Black and white photos of alpacas saved in the grayscale color space.
- Crias: Photos of those loveable, huggable alpaca babies.
- Alpaca Close-ups: Portraits of Alpacas.
- Farm Scene: Scenic photos of alpacas and where they live.
- Humor: Photos of alpacas doing what makes us laugh.

Judging Criteria

- Focus: Distinctness or clarity of an image rendered by the camera.
- Depth of Field: Range of acceptably sharp focus in front of and behind the distance the lens is focused on.
- Exposure: Light striking a sensitized material (film or paper emulsion).
- Lighting: Distribution of light on an object or figure in the photo.
- Composition: Placement or arrangement of visual elements in photo, as distinct from the subject in the photo.
- Rule of Thirds: Guideline which proposes that an image should be imagined as divided into nine equal parts by two equally-spaced horizontal lines and two equally-spaced vertical lines, and important compositional elements should be placed along these lines or their intersections; thus creating more tension, energy and interest in the composition than simply centering the subject would.

Vet on Site

Dr. Patti Maness (DVM)

Dr. Patti Maness (DVM) graduated from Texas A & M in 1981, and practiced in south Texas for 20 years. Dr. Maness' current practice is south of Oklahoma City, and consists of small animal and exotics which includes alpacas. She is a member of the American Association of Small Ruminant Veterinary Practitioners (AARSP). Dr. Maness is licensed in both Texas and Oklahoma. She is the owner of Bowtie Ranch and Alpaca Farm. She has owned and shown alpacas since 2006. She brings a unique perspective as both an owner and veterinarian. Dr. Maness has pursued advanced education courses regarding alpacas at Kansas State with Dr. David Anderson and Dr. Meredyth Jones, as well as Oregon State with Dr. Chris Cebra, and just last year at U. C. Davis. Dr. Maness is a TXOLAN supporter and member, and will be our on-site veterinarian in case her services are needed on a fee basis.

Her services will be available on Friday in case of health certificate (CVI) or microchip issues. Re-issuing a health certificate will be $25.00. The ARI certificate and BVD by PCR results (lab and date info) will be required. A Bio-Therm Life microchip can be implanted for $25.00 if needed. In addition, she will be bringing her ultrasound equipment and can perform examinations at a discounted cost. You will need to contact her to make proper arrangements to access this service as there may be special times or requirements needed in order to avoid interference with event activities and rules.
